

OPERATION MOONLIGHT

Thank you for your interest in auditioning for Operation Moonlight's upcoming tour of A Christmas Carol! Please read the below information thoroughly to ensure that this opportunity is a good fit for you. To submit your interest in auditioning, write to info@operationmoonlight.com with the subject line 'FAO Casting - A Christmas Carol'. Please include a covering note, CV, and spotlight or showreel link. One of our team will be in touch with you.

AUDITIONS:

Dates: 26th & 27th June

Location: London, Zone 2.

What to prepare: If invited to audition, please bring one classical and one contemporary monologue, and one unaccompanied song. We may ask you to read for a part or parts whilst in the room; sides will be provided in this case.

What if I can't attend? Please submit your CV regardless, and note in your cover letter that you are unavailable for the audition dates. We will keep your details on file for consideration for later opportunities.

ABOUT THE TOUR

Rehearsal Dates: 18th October to 6th November, 2026.

Tour Dates: November 8th to December 24th, 2026. There are an average of four show days per week.

Rate of pay: This tour is paid at a weekly rate of £550 per week.

Accommodation: Accommodation is provided throughout the tour and rehearsal period. Rehearsals will take place in Sheffield. Company provided accommodation may be shared among one or more cast members of the same gender.

Travel: Travel to and from the company base is covered by the company. Company vehicles are driven by members of the cast and the company manager. Please mention in your cover note if you have previous tour driving experience.

Life on Tour: Please be aware that our actors wear many hats and alongside the Company Manager are jointly responsible for all aspects of the smooth running of the tour, including the load in and load out of sets, costume maintenance, and tour vehicle driving.

Please feel free to contact us with any further questions regarding the tour or working with us in general. We look forward to hearing from you!
